CIA HISTORY PROGRAM

1. The CIA History Program has two major objectives which are the principal responsibilities of the CIA Historical Staff. One is to compile an accurate, comprehensive record of significant Agency activities. The second is to develop accurate accounts of certain of CIA's past activities in terms suitable for inclusion in Government-wide historical and declassification programs, while protecting intelligence sources and methods.

2. As a corollary to the first objective, the Historical Staff will be responsible for compiling classified and unclassified histories on an Agency-wide basis and continue to offer guidance and review of an orderly completion of component histories in progress. The Historical Staff will also monitor the maintenance of Agency records and archives.

3. To accomplish its objectives, the Historical Staff is granted access to all Agency personnel and records, subject to the approval of the Deputy Director concerned, provided that the Historical Staff may appeal a refusal to the DDCI. Completed histories will be under the control of the Deputy Director concerned, provided that release to the public will be subject to the approval of the Director.

4. Effective 30 June 1973, the Chief, CIA Historical Staff is Walter Elder, vice Bernard Drell, retired.

WST's reaction to the CIB

(15 Aug 51 CIB Review started. DCL took it to the Pres each week.

DCL briefed the NSC in mid-week whenever it met.

He also talked to the Pres. privately every Fri. morning before the att. Cabinet meeting. The Pres kept & read it. DCL puts given him by the DCL each Fri.

CIA Services

DCI gave a briefing to the Pres + NSC each week. (No Fri. meeting.)

DCI picks were going to the WH - the CIB, Watch Post (!), CIR, Sec Sec, Int'l Digest for the Dir. DCI marked CIB items it esp. wanted the Pres to see.

DCI also, early in '53, began to send ^{hot} CIB items to the WH before publication. (How long did this last?)

Briefings for WH Staff, Wed. am. *

On 21 Jan 53, John Targ, Exec Sec of NSC, asked Sheldon for list of picks of interest to the Pres. All DCI picks for the Pres were addressed to Targ; initially. By 26 Jan the picks went to Gen. ^{Robt} Cutler.

By March, the CIB went to Targ, who sent them to Cutler, for info.

By March, the Pres's copy of the CIB went to Col. Carroll.

Why did Sheldon & [redacted] decide vs. the PICK idea in March 53?
